25X1A

1. Since the beginning of June, many unreliable persons have been evacuated by Hungarian authorities from the regions near the Yugoslav border. It is reported that 4,000 persons have been removed from Baja and vicinity, either into the interior of the country or to internment in concentration camps.
2. In July some 2,000 monks and nuns have been interned in the Catholic Gymnasium in Keesket. The alleged reason is that monks owe allegiance only to Rome, whereas ordinary priests are more easily controlled by the local government.
3. The Hungarian government has instituted a mail censorship office in Szombathely, under the supervision of Soviet officers. This move is said to have been made on Soviet order.
